Two local companies bring Baton Rouge back to the '50s

The Cajun Spoon partners with Curbside to host Curbside Classics

BATON ROUGE, La., Thursday, Feb. 23, 2017 - The Cajun Spoon is partnering with Curbside Burgers to sponsor Curbside Classics, a vintage car show and pop up movie event, on March 9 at 5:30 p.m. at Curbside Burgers (4158 Government Street).

The event will mimic an old-fashion drive-in movie. Classic cars will be on show in the parking lot, and movies will be playing on a screen in the backyard. Admission is free, and Curbside's burgers, fries and shakes will be available for purchase. Students will receive a discount with their student ID.

"We want to build a sense of community in the Baton Rouge area," said Ryan Grizzaffi, owner and founder of The Cajun Spoon. "And what better way to do that than bring in classic cars, serve burgers and milkshakes and show family-friendly movies."

Two movies will play during the event. A family-friendly movie will begin at 6 p.m., and a second movie for older audiences will follow. The movies will be announced at a later date.

The Cajun Spoon will be raffling off a product basket during the event. In order to enter the raffle, attendees are encouraged to bring nonperishable items, which will be donated to the Greater Baton Rouge Food Bank.

Car registration is currently open, but spaces are limited. There is no fee to show a car. Those interested in showing their car can contact Meagan Morvant at imprintcommlsu@gmail.com or (504) 452-0703. Registration will close March 7 at 5 p.m.

About Curbside

Founded in 2010, Curbside Burgers began as a food truck roaming the streets of Baton Rouge. The business was founded on quality ingredients, grinding the beef in house, popping fresh cut fries and making house made condiments. Through the food, Curbside quickly created a following and six years later, the dream of opening up a brick and mortar location became a reality. In late 2016, Curbside opened it's flagship location at 4158 Government Street in Mid-City Baton Rouge. The restaurant focuses on creating the perfect burger experience for all customers and provides fast-casual lunch and a relaxed nighttime atmosphere for family and friends to enjoy live music and one amazing backyard.
